

Esa-Matti Aalto Strengthens the Management of OLBRICH GmbH

Bocholt/Germany, 17 November, 2020

The machinery and plant manufacturer OLBRICH enlarge their management team: Since 1 October, 2020 Esa-Matti Aalto is, as Chief Sales Officer (CSO) in the company located at Bocholt, responsible for the Service and Sales departments. The 45-year old thus strengthens the existing management consisting of Bastian Kuhl (CEO) and Rolf Langkamp (CTO).

Before, Esa-Matti Aalto was managing director of OLBRICH's subsidiary Polytype Converting. His change will clearly intensify the already close cooperation between the two companies. Bastian Kuhl and Rolf Langkamp say: "This is a significant step to strengthen the international project business of the complementary business fields of OLBRICH and Polytype under one joint management. We are very pleased that we have gained Esa-Matti Aalto for these tasks. As a 'real', smoothly cooperating team we will now drive the strategic expansion of the international business development forward for both companies all the more successfully."

Picture: Esa-Matti Aalto

Esa-Matti Aalto as well is grateful for getting the chance to shape a common future under these changed conditions: „Our aim is to make better use than before of existing structures and to use them for a sustainable expansion of our market position. Our customers will benefit from synergies from our flexible and globally present manufacturing and service organization, but also from unique research and development centers in Germany and Switzerland where we develop future-oriented technologies for more than 50 sectors and market segments.”

Personal Details:

Esa-Matti Aalto, 45 years old, has been active in the machinery and plant manufacturing for almost 20 years, 12 years of which he has already been active in the group of companies around Polytype Converting and OLBRICH. In the year 2008 he changed from Voith Paper to Pagendam BTT, at that time a 100% subsidiary of Polytype Converting AG. Here he first acted as Sales and Business Development Manager, before he was appointed Managing Director in 2011. In April 2016 he changed to OLBRICH CTH as Sales and Business Development Director. In the course of the transition to the newly founded Polytype Converting GmbH he took over the management of the operative business in the field of Sales and Commercial Operations in 2017, before two years later he was finally appointed Managing Director and Member of the Board of Directors of Polytype Converting.

About OLBRICH GmbH

OLBRICH GmbH, a member of the Borgers group, is, with 5 locations in Germany and other countries, active as machine and plant engineering company with more than 900 employees. In the field of Converting OLBRICH is a system provider for machines and lines for the production of web-shaped products such as wallpaper, floor coverings, self-adhesive tapes, décor film/foils and technical textiles.

OLBRICH has a fully integrated value-added chain including engineering and manufacturing as well as corresponding pilot plants in a technical center.

www.olbrich.com

About Polytype Converting

Polytype Converting employ, at their locations in Hamburg and Fribourg, a team of specialists recognized worldwide in the field of Engineering, Project Management, Supply Chain as well as of Sales and Service. The range of products comprises machines and lines for the finishing of web-shaped media for the production of release material and labels, packaging materials, paper finishing, energy and electronic applications and various special applications. The high-performance pilot plants in Fribourg provide excellent conditions for the development of new products in cooperation with the customers from all over the world.

www.polytype-converting.com